

First Choice?

Domestic students most often cited online question banks and faculty provided materials as their top resources for course study

International students most often cited textbooks (print/electronic).

Domestic students were most likely to be provided with access to...

UpToDate
73%

eBooks
68%

Clinical Key
51%

Access Medicine
45%

International students were most likely to be provided with...

eBooks
39%

Print Books
37%

In-Person USMLE Courses
31%

Students, both domestic and international, typically start preparing for Step 1 during M2 and for Step 2 during M3.

UWorld 82% Domestic
76% International

USMLE-Rx 77% Domestic
81% International

Pathoma 82% Domestic 70% International

were the most widely used online USMLE prep resources

Kaplan was also widely used internationally-65% vs. 39% domestically.

Both domestic and international students expressed overall satisfaction with the online USMLE prep resources they used.

Nearly 9 in 10 students

Domestic

International

used medical learning resources or apps on their mobile devices. Most common were board exam questions, websites with non-reviewed content, and flashcards.